- 25X1X 1. For more than one year there have been stationed near Belena, Bulgaria (twenty kilometers west of Svishtov on the Danube River) approximately three hundred Bulgarian soldiers of the class of 1926. Their task was to man approximately thirty pontoons for a pontoon bridge across the Danube. On 15 July 1947, these soldiers together with their equipment were transported by rail from Belena to an unknown destination said to be on the Greek border.
